"In His image—in this sign we conquer."
"The Christian life is the most comprehensive life known; it is as deep as the heart; it is as wide as the world; and it is as high as heaven."

William Jennings Bryan
Foreword

In the speeches of William Jennings Bryan the common man could find guidelines and sound advice. His oratory left men inspired with a new knowledge of God and a new vision of mankind. His words still revitalize the heart and refresh the soul. Our everyday lives are evidence of the timelessness of his sayings. Look again at 1966 through the eyes of a truly great man; let his words lead you through this book.
"... mighty in word and deed before God and all the people."
Luke 24:19b

Words alone are weak. It is only when they are supported with comparable actions that they become strong. The memory of Bryan remains unblemished because of his nearly-perfect blend of the two.
DEDICATION

Backgrounds are never glamorous. Throw the spotlight on the background and view a man who does his work well. Patience and humility are personified in one who consistently works without recognition.

“One Needs the Inner Strength Which Comes with the Conscious Presence of a Personal God.”
OPENING

CONVOCATION
Later we may be lost in a flood of books and facts. Now is a time to examine ourselves before God and to receive a fresh awareness of God through the messages of these meetings.
MISSIONARY
CONFERENCE

An informal time in the lounge.

Rev. Fred Renich
A class learns of Mr. Syers work in Brazil.

Through in-class contact with alumni missionaries, prayer-band displays, and Reverend Fred Renich's messages, this year's conference challenged us to tell others about Jesus.

The choir presents Miss Marsden's "Glorious Tidings."
BIBLE
CONFERENCE

Under the Holy Spirit's ministry and Dr. Robert Smith's leadership, we were stirred to a critical evaluation of ourselves in being honest with God.

Our guests joined us for breakfast

CHAPEL

At 8:30 in the morning it is hard to get excited about chapel. But what could be more appropriate than to begin each day with forty minutes of praise, prayer, and meditation in the promises of God? Chapel time may be too early to excite us, but it has proved an excellent time to enrich us.

Christian service needs to be a present activity rather than a future goal. The Christian Service Association offers present service in such things as public school Bible classes, jail services, and child-evangelism classes.
The Foreign Missions Fellowship carries the burden of Bryan's sharing in world missions. Prayer, prayer letters, and the missionary fund are important parts of that sharing.
DAY OF PRAYER

An early-morning challenge to pray.

Speakers, group meetings, and individual devotions encouraged us to be with God through prayer.

Coupled in blind dates of the Student Council's arranging, the freshmen and new students discover that the administration and faculty are interesting—and interested—as they meet formally at the President's Reception.
FRESHMAN INITIATION

How do you like it?

The benign sophomores rescue the benighted freshmen from their romantic illusions and acquaint them with the rigorous discipline (midnight calisthenics!) necessary. The freshmen endure admirably, encouraged by the thought that "next time it will be OUR turn!" But "next time" sometimes seems far away.

APPOINTED? - or just prepared?

So now you have your diploma. Or at least graduation is one year closer. But do you know where God wants you to serve Him? Are you appointed, — or just prepared?

Africa has many wide-open doors. There are countless opportunities for dedicated Christians with preparation like yours.

The SIM welcomes your inquiries. We will be happy to pray with you and counsel you concerning missionary service in Africa. Write us and ask for our free booklet Who Should Go?

APPRECIATION

TO Mrs. Bentley for her advice and encouragement.

TO Tom Akins for his tireless, photographic assistance.

TO Dave Llewellyn for his hours of volunteered aid.

TO Bonnie Hubert and last year's COMMONER staff for their willingness to advise us.

TO the many others without whom this book would have been impossible.
